Student Affairs Committee (SAC)
Chair: Kate Cullen ’16

Sexual Assault
This week Sara Dean ‘16 and Chris Caines ‘16 attended the SFCC meeting with Dean Antonio on behalf of the WSA. Kate Cullen ‘16 drafted a new resolution to address sexual assault in all spaces across our campus. She has been reaching out to other Assembly members, Greek life leadership, administrators and other student activists for feedback.

Fire Safety and Facilities Appeals Board
Chair Julio Angel ‘16 and the SAC members of the Fire Safety and Facilities Appeals Board met with administrators this week to discuss reforming and reshaping the Board.

Student Health
Lily Donahue ‘15 met with Joyce Walter this week to discuss expanding DHC hours. WSA sent out a poll this week put together by Victor Zhao ‘17 and ASHA to gather information on sexual health at Wesleyan. Please take it and encourage your friends to as well.

Miscellaneous
Following widespread concerns about the study abroad petition process, Lily Donahue ‘15 met with the Office of International Studies to discuss ongoing changes to the process and reasons why such a high number of petitions were denied this year. Simon Chen ‘16 is working with Bruno and Nadia on the creation of an Internationalization Task Force.

Re-assumptions
Due to some miscommunication between a few parties, the SBC is almost out of funds. This has typically happened before around this time, so this week, instead of giving out funds to groups, the SBC will do re-assumptions. This means we will contact all the student groups with over $200 in their SBC accounts, and if they are not planning on using them immediately, we will take those funds back into the SBC account to dole out again. We are working with Cameron Couch ‘12, the SBC Chair from two years ago, on the assumptions process. It’s fairly simple, and if there aren’t enough funds to reassume to cover all further student requests (which there should be, since there are less than $1,000 in submitted requests for the next few weeks), there are other options to cover the student requests, such as the Projects Budget. More on this next week! No one should be nervous about this - looking through only five groups out of over three hundred, I’ve already found over $1,000 in unused SBC funds.

How-To Booklet
Mika Reyes ‘17 is hard at work! Will be done before the end of the year.

Consolidation Project
Matan Koplin-Green ‘15 has been heading up the consolidation of all SBC information, so that we are dispelling the EXACT same information in every student group handbook, website, etc. The SBC will present our changes to the Constitutional Review Committee, most of which essentially alter preexisting language to be up-to-date, pragmatic, and in line with our current practices.

Green Fund Liaison
It works! We had a green-fund related SBC request, so we deferred the request, Izzy Linzer ‘17 spoke with Zachary Brint ‘16 of the Green Fund, and sorted it all out.
Sustainability, Finance, and Facilities Committee (SuFFaC)
Chair: Justin Gitlin ’15

Dining Committee
Nadia Georgieva ’16 and Colin O’Keeffe conducted their audit of the dining facilities this past week. They are now in the process of compiling a list of suggestions for improving the facilities’ environmental sustainability as well as food sustainability.

The committee is also working with Bon Appetit to implement the program of food donation. The committee has devised a multi faceted approach to the issue—which will include advertisements on both the part of the WSA as well as from Bon Appetit.

The committee continues to push for Bon Appetit’s adoption of food composting.

The Committee for Investor Responsibility
The CIR continues to work with the end of the year in view. They are currently working to compile their end of the year report. Additionally, the CIR has published a document pertaining to the possibility of the University’s divestment from fossil fuel companies.

Transportation
The Ride tracking software is online and through its testing, has been proven functional.

Mary Diaz ’14 is working with the Transportation Department to coordinate the ride sharing apparatus for the end of the year—with the hopes that running it through the school will enhance its legitimacy.
